

Co-pilot Flashback Story

Time shifting phrase: I thought back to the time when my life almost came to a sudden and terrifying end...

A large rectangular area with horizontal green lines for writing. The lines are evenly spaced and cover most of the page's width and height, providing space for the student to write their flashback story.